UNREGISTERED PUBLICATIONS SUPPRESSED

When talk of peace began, periodicals purporting to give behind-the-scenes information appeared like mushrooms in the Nan-ching--Shang-hai region. Believing that most of these periodicals were not registered and contained news that was unreliable, the Shang-hai--Wu-sung--Hang-chow Garrison Commander ordered all copies confiscated. He also (1) organized a corps of inspectors for bookstores and newspaper stands; (2) set up censorship; (3) prohibited printing and publishing houses, under severe penalties, from issuing any unregistered material. The 22 unregistered periodicals confiscated were:
